TRAVELLING COUNTRY

By Vessela Dantcheva & Ivan Bogdanov

Animation – Bulgaria – 2016 – 13'38 min – Without dialogue

Once upon a time, there was a country on the back of a giant horse, but it was ruined by stupidity and greed. Now, only the horse's tail remains of its former glory, while the people live in the shadow of what used to be a happy world. Vessela Dantcheva & Ivan Bogdanov are a director duo who have been working together for 15 years and made several acclaimed films such as Father (2012) and Anna Blume (2009).

TOUGH

By Jennifer Zheng

Animation – UK – 2016 – 4'49 min – English subtitles

New light is shed on childhood cultural misunderstandings when a Chinese mother and her British born daughter speak as adults for the first time. An animated documentary, Tough was nominated for the BAFTA Animated Short Film 2017 and continues to receive accolades in the UK and internationally. Jennifer Zheng drew on her own upbringing as a confused Chinese child living in Northern Ireland to create Tough – a personal experience of identity. She is a graduate of Kingston University and now works as an animation director in London.

THE BLOW-IN

By Treasa O'Brien

Live Action – Ireland/Germany – 2016 – 8 min – English subs

Frenchwoman Véronique has been living in the small town of Gort in the West of Ireland for 6 years, but she still doesn't feel at home. Veronique looks into the windows of people living in Gort today to see what 'a real home' is like. The Blow-In was the Irish contribution to the Europe-wide project Europoly by the Goethe-Institut.

Treasa O'Brien is a filmmaker based in Ireland, London and Utopia. She makes fiction, experimental moving image and documentary but she is most interested when these distinctions collapse.
